

Leading High Performing Teams Scholarship Application Information

Please see below the criteria used for the non-profit partial scholarships awarded for the Leading High Performing Teams program at Simmons School of Management Executive Education.

This program is designed specifically for professionals looking for a challenging learning environment to enhance their leadership potential. This residential program is designed to help women learn how to improve team output by developing actionable strategies for establishing credibility, pre-empting conflict and enhancing communication and collaboration.

Simmons' Executive Education is pleased to offer partial scholarships for the Leading High Performing Teams program, to be delivered on October 20-22, 2008. Candidates should be a:

- high achieving woman who can make a substantial impact in her organization
- middle to senior level manager ready to take her career to the next level
- non-profit leader with a proven track record of accomplishment

We encourage all women in non-profit organizations who fit the above criteria to apply. To apply, please submit a description detailing how you fit the above profile, along with the program application available at <http://www.simmons.edu/som/execed/programs/leading-teams/> (click "Register Now" and fill out the required information). Please return this to me on or before the October 13, 2008 deadline.

Please contact me with any questions, at (617) 521-3870 or at jennifer.lau@simmons.edu. Thank you for your interest, and I hope to see you at Simmons in the future!

Kind regards,
